

To all teens interested in the NOAM leadership training program this coming year

Over the past six years the NOAM program has become an important part of the CAI Shabbat experience. NOAM has impacted many lives and as we embark on our sixth year we are very excited about the role NOAM will continue to play in our newly-renovated synagogue. Shoshi Rosenbaum continues to be the NOAM advisor. She can be reached by email: theshoshinater@comcast.net

The Leadership Training Program will give new madrichim tools to be educators, helping them develop the skills to transmit informal educational activities in an engaging way and to take a leading role in enriching younger children's Jewish identity. The program will continue to develop and expand on the experience of our veteran Madrichim utilizing their knowledge and know-how to mentor their peers. During the year we will hold our annual family Shabbat dinner as well as a special April program with our Israeli Noam leaders.

The rabbis in the Talmud teach that one learns a lot from their teachers, more from their friends, but the most knowledge they acquire from their students. Working as a Madrich in NOAM is on the one hand an educating-teaching experience but is a great learning one as well!
